A BILL

for

An Act amending and re-enacting Sections 1168 and 1172 of the Wyoming Compiled Statutes of 1920, relating to official court reporters and their duties.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Section 1. Section 1168 of the Wyoming Compiled Statutes of 1920 is amended and re-enacted to read:

Sec.1168. Attendance upon judge. Such reporter shall be in constant attendance upon the judge of said court at all times, and shall be the clerk and stenographer of the judge, and he shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his duty, and take the oath of office required in the constitution of this state, and shall remain in attendance on the court, and take full stenographic notes in cases tried during said attendance, of all testimony or admissions made by either side, objections to the introduction of testimony, the ruling of the court thereon, the exceptions taken thereto, and such other proceedings as the court may direct, and shall preserve such stenographic notes and furnish a transcript thereof, or of any part of same, upon the request of any party having an interest therein.

Section 2. Section 1172 of the Wyoming Compiled Statutes of 1920 is amended and re-enacted to read:

Sec.1172. Per diem service. In all criminal cases said official reporter shall charge, and the board of county commissioners of each county wherein such service is rendered, shall pay the sum of five dollars per day for and during the time such reporter may be engaged in the reporting of each and every criminal case, and the sums so collected by such official court reporter shall be by him covered into the State Treasury; and in all civil cases such reporter shall receive a per diem of five dollars per day for reporting each case, payable in advance by the parties litigant, who may desire such service, and such sum so collected by said official court reporter shall likewise be covered into the State Treasury; all of which fees shall be so covered into the State Treasury as soon as practicable after the first Monday of each month after the services have been performed, and such official court reporter shall be liable upon his official bond for the proper collection and paying over of such fees. Such reporter may charge the sum of fifteen cents per folio, of one hundred words, for all transcripts, records, bills of exception and other papers required to be made and issued by him as such official reporter, and the sum of five cents per folio, of one hundred words, for each carbon copy, and he may require payment therefor upon delivery of such transcript, record, bill of exceptions, or other instrument.

Section 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
