

CHAPTER 81.

Original House Bill No. 185.

SALE OF STATE LANDS.

AN ACT to amend and re-enact Section 722, Wyoming Compiled Statutes, 1920, relating to sale of state lands.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Section 1. That Section 722, Wyoming Compiled Statutes, 1920, is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 722. The board may at any time direct the sale of state lands subject to any lease thereof. Such lands which have been reserved in any way to the public use, or for the use of public institutions, shall not be sold to any member of the board. The board shall sell such lands according to the subdivisions of sections as established by the United States survey thereof, or by metes and bounds, as may appear to be to the interest of the state of Wyoming. The board shall sell such subdivisions as it shall deem for the best interests of the state; provided, in cases of actual and bona fide settlers at the time of the adoption of the constitution of the state of Wyoming, that any actual and bona fide settler may make application to the board, accompanied by a map showing the exact situation and extent of said portion of legal subdivision so improved, and the improvements thereon made, and the board shall appraise said portion of the legal subdivisions, and sell the same to said settler at not less than the appraised value.

Section 2. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 19, 1929.
