

CHAPTER 78

Senate File No. 67.

LABOR OF PRISONERS IN PENITENTIARY

AN ACT to amend and re-enact Section 591, Wyoming Compiled Statutes, 1920, relating to labor of prisoners in the penitentiary and on penitentiary farms.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Section 1. That Section 591, Wyoming Compiled Statutes, 1920, be amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 591, The said commission shall have the power to make and adopt rules and regulations governing the employment, conduct and management of the prisoners in the state penitentiary and on penitentiary farms when employed on the work provided for them by the said commission. It shall direct that each convict shall be employed at such work as shall make it possible for him to acquire trade knowledge and skill in the industry for which he is most adapted, and at which he can best earn a livelihood when paroled or discharged from the institution so far as such provision can be made practicable by said commission, using its best judgment therein. The supervision of all such work shall be under such persons as may be selected by said commission.

Section 2. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1931.
