The Honorable Thyra Thomson, Secretary of State, then addressed the House:

SECRETARY OF STATE THYRA THOMSON'S ADDRESS
TO

THE WYOMING HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

January 14, 1969

Members of the House of Representatives of the 40th Session of the Wyoming Legislature—

Because the House of Representatives is not a legislative body with continuing membership but rather all members are elected biennially, Wyoming law designates the Secretary of State to call each new House to order and preside until it has elected temporary officers and can proceed with its proper organization and legislative matters. It is my privilege to play this small part in the legislative function. I should like to extend a special welcome to the nineteen new members.

Otherwise, the executive branch—elected officials and appointed administrators alike—await your instructions, for within the limits set by the Constitution you tell us what to do. Your power is an extraordinary one for it extends to local units of government, every city and county, as well.

Though your legislative power is circumscribed by state boundaries, in reality your influence may be boundless.

Here one hundred years ago the men of the first Wyoming Territorial Legislature enacted a law which attracted more attention than any other document in the 19th Century—the law giving equal rights to women. Not only did it become a model for other states and, a half-century later, for the federal government, but it induced social change around the world.

When women suffered the worst discrimination, being considered chattels of their husbands, unable to own property, be paid directly for work, administer an estate, or even act as guardians for their own children without the husband's consent, this act granting women the right to vote and hold office sparked the gaining of legal and economic rights for women as well.

To the everlasting glory of the men of Wyoming, their action set off a chain of events which not only freed American women from the status of inferior citizenship but echoed round the world.

So in convening this House today, one hundred years later, I think it is fitting that we pay tribute to these first Wyoming Legislators and pray that our actions this session merit as high regard.

It is an especially happy circumstance that on this centennial anniversary you have announced your choice of the first woman Speaker of the Wyoming House of Representatives, Verda James of Natrona County. I salute you for putting action to words.

Last month three Americans accomplished the incredible feat of orbiting the moon, and we have a measure of pride that the Apollo program is directed by a Wyoming man. We have entered the age of interplanetary travel.

Still our greatest challenge, indeed our continuing frontier, is in the conduct of human affairs. In government you are the courageous men and women of action. I wish you a successful venture.

ELECTION OF TEMPORARY SPEAKER

On the motion of Mr. William F. Craft of Big Horn County, the Honorable Mr. Alan Simpson of Park County was unanimously elected as Temporary Speaker.

The Honorable Secretary of State then appointed Messrs. Willard C. Rhoads of Park County, Clyde W. Kurtz of Park County and Curtis Rochelle of Carbon County to escort the Honorable Alan Simpson to the Chair.

ELECTION OF TEMPORARY CHIEF CLERK

On the motion of Mr. Lawrence A. Yonkee of Sheridan County, The Honorable Harold Hellbaum of Platte County was unanimously elected Temporary Chief Clerk of the House.

The Temporary Speaker then appointed Messrs. James A. Willox of Converse County and Earl K. Parsons of Goshen County to escort Mr. Harold Hellbaum to the Chair.

Mr. Leon Keith of Johnson County moved that a Committee on Credentials be appointed. The motion prevailed and the Temporary Speaker appointed Mr. Nels Smith of Crook County as Chairman to serve with the Chairman of each county delegation.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Wyoming.

Done at Cheyenne, the Capitol, this fourteenth day of January, A.D. 1969.

(SEAL)

(Signed) THYRA THOMSON

While I feel that the women are a great power now and also a great power at the time of having been given their suffrage, I feel that the men made this position possible. In electing me as Speaker of the House, particularly at this time, when there is such a large majority, I believe that the minority party must be given due consideration as they are also the elected representatives of their people, as well as the majority.

"My prayer is that I be guided to conduct a successful session and pray that I may be of help to all members with their problems. I appreciate your faith that you have in me and the encouragement that my family, who are here in the Hall, have given me. Among my family here are Dr. James and his wife, Dorothea, my nephew, Bill James, and his wife Jerry and their two little girls, Vickie, eight, and Rhonda, three.

"I ask your cooperation and since I have known many of the men and women in this session for many years, I know that I will have that cooperation. I feel this will be a very fine session and that much will be accomplished for the State of Wyoming. Thank you."

The Honorable Thyra Thomson, Secretary of State, then addressed the House:

SECRETARY OF STATE THYRA THOMSON'S ADDRESS
TO

THE WYOMING HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

January 14, 1969

Members of the House of Representatives of the 40th Session of the Wyoming Legislature—

Because the House of Representatives is not a legislative body with continuing membership but rather all members are elected biennially, Wyoming law designates the Secretary of State to call each new House to order and preside until it has elected temporary officers and can proceed with its proper organization and legislative matters. It is my privilege to play this small part in the legislative function. I should like to extend a special welcome to the nineteen new members.

Otherwise, the executive branch—elected officials and appointed administrators alike—await your instructions, for within the limits set by the Constitution you tell us what to do. Your power is an extraordinary one for it extends to local units of government, every city and county, as well.

Though your legislative power is circumscribed by state boundaries, in reality your influence may be boundless.

Here one hundred years ago the men of the first Wyoming Territorial Legislature enacted a law which attracted more attention than any other document in the 19th Century—the law giving equal rights to women. Not only did it become a model for other states and, a half-century later, for the federal government, but it induced social change around the world.

When women suffered the worst discrimination, being considered chattels of their husbands, unable to own property, be paid directly for work, administer an estate, or even act as guardians for their own children without the husband's consent, this act granting women the right to vote and hold office sparked the gaining of legal and economic rights for women as well.

To the everlasting glory of the men of Wyoming, their action set off a chain of events which not only freed American women from the status of inferior citizenship but echoed round the world.

So in convening this House today, one hundred years later, I think it is fitting that we pay tribute to these first Wyoming Legislators and pray that our actions this session merit as high regard.

It is an especially happy circumstance that on this centennial anniversary you have announced your choice of the first woman Speaker of the Wyoming House of Representatives, Verda James of Natrona County. I salute you for putting action to words.

Last month three Americans accomplished the incredible feat of orbiting the moon, and we have a measure of pride that the Apollo program is directed by a Wyoming man. We have entered the age of interplanetary travel.

Still our greatest challenge, indeed our continuing frontier, is in the conduct of human affairs. In government you are the courageous men and women of action. I wish you a successful venture.

ELECTION OF TEMPORARY SPEAKER

On the motion of Mr. William F. Craft of Big Horn County, the Honorable Mr. Alan Simpson of Park County was unanimously elected as Temporary Speaker.

The Honorable Secretary of State then appointed Messrs. Willard C. Rhoads of Park County, Clyde W. Kurtz of Park County and Curtis Rochelle of Carbon County to escort the Honorable Alan Simpson to the Chair.

ELECTION OF TEMPORARY CHIEF CLERK

On the motion of Mr. Lawrence A. Yonkee of Sheridan County, The Honorable Harold Hellbaum of Platte County was unanimously elected Temporary Chief Clerk of the House.

The Temporary Speaker then appointed Messrs. James A. Willox of Converse County and Earl K. Parsons of Goshen County to escort Mr. Harold Hellbaum to the Chair.

Mr. Leon Keith of Johnson County moved that a Committee on Credentials be appointed. The motion prevailed and the Temporary Speaker appointed Mr. Nels Smith of Crook County as Chairman to serve with the Chairman of each county delegation.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS

Mr. Temporary Speaker:

Your Committee on Credentials begs leave to report that it received from the Secretary of State a certified copy of the duly elected members of the House of Representatives of the Wyoming Fortieth State Legislature and submits same to you as the duly elected members of the House of Representatives of the Fortieth Wyoming State Legislature.

"I want you to know that I appreciate the honor of being elected Speaker of the House of Representatives. While I feel that the women are a great power now and also a great power at the time of having been given their suffrage, I feel that the men made this position possible. In electing me as Speaker of the House, particularly at this time, when there is such a large majority, I believe that the minority party must be given due consideration as they are also the elected representatives of their people, as well as the majority.

"My prayer is that I be guided to conduct a successful session and pray that I may be of help to all members with their problems. I appreciate your faith that you have in me and the encouragement that my family, who are here in the Hall, have given me. Among my family here are Dr. James and his wife, Dorothea, my nephew, Bill James, and his wife Jerry and their two little girls, Vickie, eight, and Rhonda, three.

"I ask your cooperation and since I have known many of the men and women in this session for many years, I know that I will have that cooperation. I feel this will be a very fine session and that much will be accomplished for the State of Wyoming. Thank you."

MESSAGE TO THE FORTIETH WYOMING LEGISLATURE PREPARING WYOMING FOR QUALITY GROWTH IN THE SEVENTIES

January 15, 1969

Ladies and Gentlemen of the 40th Wyoming Legislature:

It is good to see again so many familiar faces among those who occupied these legislative halls two years ago. I also extend a particular welcome to the new members.

It is a pleasure to congratulate and commend you for your earnestness and desire to assume the burdens and responsibilities you will undertake during the next five and a half weeks.

When I spoke from this rostrum two years ago, I remarked upon the challenges that we, as elected representatives of the people, faced in meeting the problems confronting our state—in attempting to solve them—and seeking to build a better Wyoming.

I think that we can look back upon that session of two years ago and say that most of the challenges were, in fact, met, and most of the problems were attended to. It would be nice to say, as a consequence, our problems today are reduced and diminished.

But yesterday is not today—nor will today be the same as tomorrow. Each new day, each new month, each new year brings new challenges, new problems and change. Change is inconvenient and calls for personal adjustment—but it is not to be feared.

You have heard me say many times that Wyoming is at a crossroad in her history. I say today that Wyoming is standing on the threshold of tremendous development.

Recognition of Wyoming's importance not only to the Rocky Mountain region but to the nation is now a reality. This state is becoming more important daily as a source for energy fuels and other minerals; as a site in which modern technological and scientific industry can grow and prosper in a quality environment; and as a retreat offering a few days, weeks or months of healthful relaxation and recreation for millions of Americans not endowed as we are with clean air, pure water, open and beautiful skies.

In glancing back over the past two years we see encouraging signs of economic gains.

Wyoming has stopped losing people—we have started to grow again.

There are some weak spots, particularly in agriculture and in some of our communities, but, overall, our economy is moving upward. Tourism and recreation showed a healthy fifteen percent gain last year, and that represents an additional fifteen million dollars in new money for the economy of Wyoming. Sales and use tax revenues show substantial gains which reflect increased business activity.

A number of new business and industrial developments—ranging from small manufacturing to a multi-million dollar soda ash plant—have made their appearance since you met here two years ago. The Natural Resource Board estimates that over $120,000,000 was invested in new and existing industry in 1968 alone.

These developments mean more jobs, more business, more commercial activity and more tax revenues to support our schools, hospitals, highways and governmental services.

Impressive indeed has been the upsurge in oil and gas and uranium exploration and production, and the new interest in coal and other minerals which portend a tremendous growth for Wyoming in coming years.

It is our job as elected representatives of all of Wyoming's people to apply our best efforts to strengthening the foundation we must have if we are to sustain beneficial progress. We must provide the framework through which we and those who come after us may administer a modern and efficient state government.

The central goal of my administration has been to attempt to bring about a coordinated and cooperative effort on the part of state and local government, the private sector and among all Wyoming citizens to build Wyoming as a total entity; to instill a spirit, a feeling, if you will, of pride and concern with the total state—the recognition that what is good for one corner of Wyoming, economically, will in some manner benefit the opposit corner, and recognition that the development of education, social services, cultural activities and all human resources is essential to build Wyoming as a total state.

I have found this feeling in every town and city during my series of Build Wyoming meetings in all twenty-three of our counties.

I can tell you unequivocally that the great majority of Wyoming's people want their state to grow. They want to take part in, contribute to and share in Wyoming's progress, and I am sure that they expect you and me, as their elected representatives, to put this desire into action.

The voters have expressed their active interest in government by their overwhelming approval last November of the Constitutional amendment providing for Initiative and Referendum. I congratulate the 39th Legislature for its action in giving the voters the opportunity to express their wishes on this issue.

My discussions with the people lead me to conclude that they expect and deserve from this legislative session results based upon objective, realistic and bold consideration of proposals—constructive action based upon what the people need—and what they can afford—and what will be beneficial to the entire state.

Economic Development—Promotion

Although progress is being made, economic development remains a major concern in Wyoming. I again recommend substantial increases in the operating budgets of the two primary promotional agencies of the state government, the Natural Resource Board and the Travel Commission. The Wyoming travel and industry promotion in New York last spring brought success that has encouraged the planning of a similar promotion trip to California this spring.

Economic Development—Recreation

The Wyoming Recreation Department created by the 39th Legislature has made good progress in planning and implement some improvements in our state parks, historic sites and recreation areas. Much more must be done to prepare Wyoming for the tourist growth of the Seventies.

I recommend legislation establishing a special recreation capital improvement fund with sufficient appropriation from the general fund to make major improvements in at least two of our state parks during the next biennium. User fees can then be charged in these parks, deposited in the capital improvement fund and used to improve other state parks and recreation facilities. Consideration should also be given to earmarking taxes on marine fuel and snowmobiles for use in the recreation capital fund.

Economic Development—Agriculture

The future of agriculture in Wyoming appears bright in the long range. Immediate attention must be given to research, new market potentials, agriculture allied industries and new innovations that will help restore vitality and confidence to this basic industry. Agriculture must be healthy if Wyoming is to have a healthy economy. It is hoped that the Agricultural Advisory Council I have appointed will be helpful in developing new ideas and a plan for agriculture in Wyoming.

The State Department of Agriculture, primarily a regulatory agency, has for the first time requested an appropriation for the direct promotion of agriculture.

I urge you to enact legislation that will permit Wyoming to continue to handle its own meat inspection. I ask that you review the dairy marketing law and consider amendments thereto.

The Interim Ways and Means Committee recommended that service fees be increased by state departments of government proportionate to present costs. The Department of Agriculture and several other departments will present bills for your consideration to implement this excellent recommendation.

Economic Development—State Geologist

Because Wyoming's economic and industrial development depends, in large measure, upon the development of its great mineral resources, I believe that the services of a full-time State Geologist and an expanded geological survey would be of great value to the industrial development efforts of the state. Advice and counsel to the Natural Resource Department and to the State Land Office would alone justify a full-time State Geologist. I recommend the establishment of this position with an appropriate budget increase.

Economic Development—Air and Water Pollution—Surface Mining Reclamation

Industrial and economic growth and progress often exact a high price for benefits received. Many states, highly developed industrially and economically, face the tragic results of air and water pollution and the misuse and abuse of land.

Wyoming cannot begin to comprehend the awesome problems faced by many urban-industrial states with respect to this contamination of the atmosphere, streams and rivers and large-scale ruination of land area. Governmental and private enterprise efforts are being made to insure that Wyomingites will never have the problems of living in an atmosphere where noon-time can only be determined by looking at a watch because the sun is hidden by a pall of dirty air; where rivers and streams resemble a sluggishly moving flow of matter that cannot be described even as mud, and where vast land areas are scarred by harum-scarum exploration activities.

The Wyoming Air Resources Council was created by the 39th Legislature. The Council, through discussions with citizens and industrial leaders across the state, has established air quality standards and a plan has been developed to maintain clean, pure air in Wyoming. This is a continuing process of communication and cooperation between government and private enterprise. Through this approach private enterprise will be enabled to operate efficiently and profitably and pollution of the atmosphere will be avoided. There have been instances in which the problem of pollution became a source of concern in certain areas of the state. These problems are now being dealt with.

Wyoming's water quality standards, drafted after much time and effort with the aim of assuring reasonable agricultural, industrial and recreational development use, have been accepted by the federal government. These standards will permit Wyoming to develop its resources and at the same time provide guidelines which insure water purity.

Wyoming has not made provision for the restoration of its land surface after exploration or mining activity. This state already bears the marks of exploration activity by individuals who made no attempt to restore the natural surface of the land when their operations were not successful. The federal government has made clear its intent to halt abuse of land, if measures are not taken at state level.

I believe that those in the mineral industry are ready and willing to work with state government to prevent the occurrence of extreme land abuse. It is my believe that legislation requiring reasonable reclamation of land surface is beneficial to everyone concerned. Such reclamation would not only maintain the natural beauty of Wyoming, but would also make possible continual, beneficial future use of the land for agriculture, recreation or other industrial pursuits. I urge you to enact reasonable legislation to insure such reclamation.

Economic Development—Water Resources

Wyoming's economic future is unalterably tied to the maximum use of its water. We must not only use it or lose it—we must use it most beneficially to develop the full potential of our state. The State Water Plan initiated by the 39th Legislature is a necessary planning prelude to the gigantic step that Wyoming must take in the seventies to build water storage and transportation facilities with state financing and revenue bonds.

Federal funding of the State Water Plan has been short of that anticipated in the last biennium. We cannot wait for federal funding and I therefore recommend a substantial increase in the state appropriation for the next biennium.

To aid in the development of the State Water Plan and to provide for more efficient administration of Wyoming water, I recommend a substantial appropriation that will permit the State Engineer to computerize all water records.

Economic Development—Air Transportation

Improved airports are essential to the development of many Wyoming communities. The State Aeronautics Commission has developed a ten-year plan for improvement of Wyoming airports. I recommend to you a substantial capital outlay that will expedite the implementation of the ten-year plan.

Tax Exemption for Vietnam War Veterans

As we perform here today the functions of government, we must be mindful that this nation is still at war. We must express our pride and indicate our concern for those who have given their lives and blood and for all those who have fought, are fighting and will fight in the war in Vietnam before it is ended. The people of Wyoming, in grateful acknowledgment of the sacrifices made by members of the Armed Forces in wars from the Civil War to and including the Korean War, have granted a veteran's tax exemption. We owe no less and we can do no less for those who have answered the call to duty during the Vietnam War. I strongly urge the enactment of a tax exemption law for veterans of the Vietnam War to provide benefits similar to those granted veterans of World War II and the Korean War.

Education—The Public Schools

Events in the past two years have shown that Wyoming people—professional educators, laymen and those of us in state government—can cooperate in solving existing problems and improving educational opportunity for all Wyoming children. One of the basic continuing needs of education is that of meeting increased costs, both at the local and state levels.

There is no doubt that this Legislature is going to have to find some workable means of providing some of this additional money—and the demands of the educational community are going to have to be tempered by the realization that the people of Wyoming do not have unlimited ability to pay taxes. We must be satisfied with progress because we cannot afford perfection.

As you know, local tax levies and state aid provide the primary sources of financial support for public education in Wyoming. The decision-making authority as to the division of this responsibility between the local and state levels rests with the Legislature.

The original intent of state aid to education—the Foundation Program—was to insure a basic educational program for all Wyoming children. If we are to continue to do this, we must put the money where the need is. This means that we must take three realistic steps which are progressive and compatible with our philosophy that the state should participate in funding local education to help assure all Wyoming children the finest education we can afford. I recommend:

1. That a substantial increase be made in the Classroom Unit Value under the Foundation Program within the range of $10,200 to $10,700. I suggest that because of inflationary pressure and the hazards of budgeting for two years, it would make good sense to establish a higher Classroom Unit Value for the second year of the biennium than for the first year.

2. That an adjustment be made in the qualifying levy—that is, the rate of the local mill levy being assessed at the local level required by the state in order for a school district to qualify for Foundation Program money. In this way we will have assurance that Foundation Program funds will support primarily the needy districts.

3. It is the state's responsibility to establish the maximum mill levy which may be assessed at the local level for educational purposes. Since we now have 46 school districts levying the maximum mill levy, I recommend an increase in the maximum mill levy to enable school districts to meet local needs.

Education—School Code Revision

The school law sub-committee of the Statute Revision Commission, a group of bipartisan legislators and citizens, has carried to completion an exhaustive study of some 600 confusing and contradictory statutes regarding education in Wyoming. This committee has done an outstanding job of recodifying and compacting these laws so that, with your approval, their administration will be more efficient and beneficial.

Among the recommendations of this committee is one dealing with school district reorganization. This recommendation, the principle of which I endorse, is designed to improve the quality of educational opportunity for all Wyoming children. The increasingly high cost of public education demands that we face up to the issue of school district reorganization in a positive and constructive manner.

Education—Vocational-Technical Training

In June of this year, the Governor's Committee on Vocational Education completed a preliminary survey of the existing vocational and technical training facilities and programs in Wyoming. In short, this committee found a great need for new and expanded programs to enable Wyoming to meet its responsibility to our citizens in need of and desiring education and training outside of strictly academic fields.

We must train skilled workers to fill jobs that are developing and will develop as economic growth continues. In my judgment, private industry, some of our high schools and all of the community colleges have a particular role to play in this field. I recommend that the 40th Legislature give serious consideration to special requests for funding vocational-technical education.

To facilitate cooperative agreements between school districts and between school districts and community college districts to provide for improved and expanded vocational-technical education programs, I commend to you legislation providing for a cooperative educational services program.

Education—Community Colleges and University of Wyoming

More and more young people in Wyoming are attending college to prepare themselves for life in the competitive, ever-changing society of today and tomorrow. The number of students enrolled in the community colleges and the University of Wyoming is greater than was projected two years ago. Projections for the next biennium are even greater. The combination of growth and inflationary cost pressures require an increase in the budget of the University of Wyoming and increased assistance to the several community colleges.

Education—Higher Education Council

Planning for higher education in the future and the increasingly high costs of higher education demand closer coordination and communication among its institutions offering post-high school education.

I recommend the establishment of a Higher Education Advisory Council to enter into the field of long-range planning for higher education in Wyoming, to be advisory to the Legislature, the Governor, the University of Wyoming, the Community Colleges and the State Department of Education.

Education—Educational Television

Educational television can no longer be considered a luxury. It is an invaluable classroom aid and provides a medium of adult education and advanced vocational-technical training. Wyoming is now one of only two states that do not have an educational television system.

I recommend that the Legislature approve and fund the first phase of a plan that will, with the assistance of federal funds, provide an educational television system that will serve all of the people of Wyoming.

Social Services

The health of the people of Wyoming must continue to be of utmost concern. Constructive programs initiated to provide better health must be continued and expanded within the limits of resources available.

Wyoming must continue to care for its needy and unfortunate. Some of the new federal programs in the welfare field involve tremendous new costs. We should concentrate upon improving programs that already exist before launching into new programs of doubtful value to the people of Wyoming.

Labor—Occupational Health and Safety

The 39th Legislature created a commission to study health and safety conditions of industrial employees and to recommend appropriate legislation. After 18 months of diligent work, including a series of public hearings throughout the state to gather facts and suggestions from all sides, the commission has recommended enactment of an occupational disease law and an occupational health and safety act. I endorse the recommendations of the commission. A realistic and workable occupational health and safety law is long overdue. We may not all agree as to the most effective approach, but I am sure we all agree on the need for improvement of occupational health and safety in Wyoming.

Labor—Fair Employment Practices Commission

It is my belief that the current composition of the Wyoming Fair Employment Practices Commission is not sufficient. The commission is currently comprised of the Labor Commission and two members at large who are appointed by the Governor. I recommend that the commission be expanded to five members, the Labor Commissioner and four at-large members who would be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. This proposal would assure representation of minority groups on the commission.

Labor—Permanent Disability and Workmen's Compensation

In my judgment the present workmen's compensation award of $17,500 for permanent disability is inadequate for those who live beyond the fixed period for which monthly payments are established. I urge your support of legislation providing for a re-assessment and increase of permanent disability awards in such cases.

Labor—Wage Collection

Present wage collection laws have proven to be ineffective. I recommend legislation that will give the Labor Commissioner authority to collect valid wage claims of less than five hundred dollars and provide for the collection of attorney fees in court actions that result in judgment for the employee.

Labor—Preference For Wyoming Workers

The 39th Legislature passed a bill granting a preference for Wyoming workers on public works projects. The bill was passed on the final day of the session and there was a procedural defect which invalidated the act. Wyoming jobs belong first to Wyoming people. I ask you to pass this legislation the second time.

Labor—Unemployment Insurance Law

I endorse proposed amendments to the unemployment insurance law which would remove the present 25 percent reduction of benefits to interstate claimants and the reduction to Social Security recipients.

Law Enforcement and Crime—Commission on Criminal Administration

The increase in crime and lawlessness is a national problem of awesome proportion because lawlessness is too often condoned. Although we are not confronted with a tide of crime that is out of hand, neither are we immune to the problem. In many respects our law enforcement agencies are holding their own, but they need and must have the full support of Wyoming's people. We must give law enforcement the capability to cope with all types of lawlessness. Wyoming ranks as one of the most law-abiding states in the nation—let's keep it that way.

The federal "Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968" holds promise for improvement of law enforcement. This is the first federal block grant-in-aid program. I endorse this approach in federal-state solution of problems.

The Attorney General moved swiftly to qualify the State of Wyoming for participation. The deadline set by the Justice Department necessitated my appointment of an advisory commission on criminal administration. I ask you to give this commission statutory authority and appropriate a sufficient sum to permit Wyoming to match the federal entitlement.

Law Enforcement and Crime—State Investigator

There have been a number of instances in which local law enforcement officials would have benefitted greatly from the services of a state investigator.

You will receive a proposal which would establish the position of state investigator. The recommendation, if approved, would make possible the employment of a professional law enforcement officer who would be available to local law enforcement agencies on request only.

Law Enforcement and Crime—Drug Abuse

There is no need for me to emphasize the evils arising from the greater availability and abuse of drugs across this state. All of us are concerned that so many of our youth have been victims of this situation. To attack this problem there must be a greater involvement and awareness on the part of the people. A concerned citizenry must support law enforcement agencies and professional groups which are taking steps to meet this problem.

It is now apparent that the drug abuse control law enacted by the 39th Legislature must be amended to make it more definitive and uniform.

Law Enforcement and Crime—Other Bills

It has also been determined, through research on the part of the Attorney General's office, that the state lacks statutes concerning criminal threats and extortion, criminal conspiracy and the solicitation, incitement or inducement of a crime. Legislation defining these criminal acts and providing penalties will be introduced for your consideration. I urge passage of these bills.

Highway and Traffic Safety

One hundred and sixty-four men, women and children were killed on Wyoming highways last year. We cannot legislate an end to this tragic loss of human life but we can enact legislation that will help slow down this appalling waste of human resources. I recommend the following:

1. A statute to permit chemical tests when an arrest has been made and liquor is alleged to be involved, otherwise known as "implied consent legislation".

2. The mandatory requirement of the use of a uniform traffic citation form, which would measurably improve our research in the field of traffic safety.

3. Motorcycle safety requirements.

4. Passage of the "rules of the road code" to make our traffic laws more nearly compatible to uniform standards.

5. Revision of the Drivers' and Chauffeurs' License Act to bring it more nearly into conformity with the uniform drivers' licensing code.

State Arts Council

The 39th Legislature established the Wyoming Council on the Arts but made no appropriation. The Council has accomplished a great deal in the past two years to stimulate cultural activity in Wyoming. Art symposiums and other activities have been conducted throughout the state without state financing. More could be done with a little money. I recommend an appropriation for the Council and the cultural growth of Wyoming.

State Office Building

The problem of office space in the Capitol Complex has become most acute. We have state offices scattered in different locations in the City of Cheyenne. Space studies show clearly that many are crowded to the point of inefficiency.

Careful consideration of this problem has been given by the Capitol Building Commission. We recommend to the Legislature the construction of a new state office building to house principally the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. This would relieve the critical space situation and permit consolidation and expansion of other departments of government in space vacated. The cost of the new building can be financed by revenue bonds without a general fund appropriation.

Liquor Warehouse Addition

Revenues of the Wyoming Liquor Commission have increased year by year as the volume of business has increased. Over the next two years the Commission anticipates that net liquor sales revenue will increase by $350,000. To handle the increased volume of sales projected for the years ahead, and to do so in an efficient and orderly manner, the Commission feels additional warehouse space is required. Legislation authorizing construction of a warehouse addition and issuance of revenue bonds is commended to you for favorable action.

Liquor Import Law

If the state is to remain in the wholesale liquor business, we should not be losing substantial revenue because large quantities of liquor are being purchased out of state. Wyoming is one of only three states that do not have a liquor import prohibition of some type. I recommend that importation of liquor be prohibited by law with reasonable exemptions.

State Motor Pool

There is merit in the establishment of a motor pool for the use of state agencies. I will welcome any suggestions or recommendations from the Legislature concerning the creation and operation of such a motor pool.

Military Code

The present and future threat of civil disorder in this nation may involve our state at any time. The Wyoming National Guard must be prepared to meet any challenge that may come. I commend for your consideration the proposed revision of the Military Code.

Multi-State Tax Compact

The 39th Legislature overwhelmingly approved enabling legislation permitting the State of Wyoming to join the Multi-State Tax Compact by gubernatorial proclamation. Last January I signed and issued a proclamation declaring Wyoming to be a member of the Compact subject to ratification by this Legislature, which was one of the conditions of the 1967 enabling act. The Compact represents voluntary affirmative action on the part of the states to deal with problems in the field of multi-state taxation. It is essential in protecting the revenue-raising powers and the tax administrative authority of our state as well as the other states. Proposed legislation would grant federal jurisdiction in this field, and one of its effects would be to give out-of-state business firms operating in Wyoming a decided competitive advantage over our own local merchants and business firms. Prompt ratification of the Multi-State Tax Compact is vital and essential to Wyoming's best interests.

Uniform Consumer Credit Code

I urge you to consider adoption of legislation which will exempt Wyoming from direct enforcement of the federal law in the area of consumer credit—truth-in-lending—by enactment of the Uniform Consumer Credit Code. Other uniform laws will be introduced which deserve your consideration.

Home Rule

The principle of Home Rule for local government is one that I support. I recommend that this Legislature take the necessary action to bring the matter before the people by approving a resolution for a Constitutional amendment extending the right of "home rule" to Wyoming municipalities.

Budget Financing

The executive budget that I will present to you tomorrow is realistic and responsible. It cannot be totally financed from existing revenue sources. My budget message, therefore, will suggest to the Legislature an additional tax upon the extracted minerals of Wyoming.

State Government Reorganization

We live in a world of change—it is a trademark of our time. Indeed, the changes that are swirling about us today are rapid, disruptive and often confusing and bewildering. Fortunately, most of these changes are toward a better way of life.

Change is a fact of life. We do not remain static. We either grow and progress—or we fail.

One thing that has not changed over the years has been the structure of our state government. To be sure, state government has grown and expanded—almost, it seems at times, by leaps and bounds. New functions of government and new agencies have been added on here and there, from time to time, to meet new requirements and provide new governmental services which our citizens have desired.

Looking at the structure of our state government, we see a sprawling, loosely-connected apparatus which finds itself sorely handicapped in doing its best to serve our state and her people. Too often there are no clear lines of authority and responsibility. Too often there is overlapping and duplication of function and responsibility.

This, ladies and gentlemen, is inefficiency. This is waste. It is, at best, unacceptable. And as demands on state government increase—as they have and will continue to increase—it will become quite intolerable to the taxpayers unless corrective action is taken now.

A little more than a year ago, I appointed a Commission on Governmental Reorganization and Constitutional Revision, a group of experienced, knowledgeable and dedicated men who bent to the task of examining some aspect of the executive department of our state government to determine ways in which it might be improved. Each of you has received copies of the eight proposals this Commission has recommended for legislative action.

I should like to make it quite clear that while, in my judgment, the enactment of these proposals will go a long way toward achieving an efficient, responsible and economical state government, they represent only the first step in the task we face if we are going to transform our state government into a modern, streamlined vehicle capable of meeting the changes, the challenges, the needs and demands of the future in a modern efficient manner.

It is because they are but a beginning that one of the eight proposals calls for the creation of a Legislative-Executive Commission on Reorganization of State Government to continue the work so forthrightly begun by the Commission which I appointed.

I hope you will give these proposals the earnest attention and consideration they deserve.

I know of nothing you can accomplish in this session that will be of more significant and lasting benefit to the people of our state.

Conclusion

I view this 40th session of the Wyoming Legislature, meeting in the 77th year of statehood, as a vehicle to prepare Wyoming for the challenges and quality growth of the Seventies.

This Legislature can be the one that takes progressive, decisive action for needed change; the one which paves the way for streamlining state government; the one which continues to improve the ways in which state government can be constructively involved in aiding private enterprise in the building of Wyoming economically; and the one that takes the necessary steps to allow beneficial revamping of the state's public education system and lend impetus to the important coordination of higher education to provide improved education opportunity for all our citizens.

I realize that this is a mammoth task. I have faced it for two years—many of you have faced it as legislators and involved leaders much longer than that.

Perhaps the task will never be completed. I don't think it will—because Wyoming, with the rest of the country and the world, will continue to progress—continue to have problems to solve and goals to meet.

We must solve current problems and move toward our goals. This will be done only if all of us keep foremost in our minds that Wyoming's growth and the needs and directives of Wyoming people are far more important to us in our roles as their elected representatives than anything else.

The task to be accomplished in the next 40 days will be done only if we adhere to the responsibilities we know we bear to all of Wyoming and all of her people—not to special interest groups and not to partisan politics.

Wyoming, its people and its problems will be here in March, and next year—and years after that—long after we have left these chambers—long after the emotions that are sometimes stirred by personal preference and partisanship have cooled and died.

It is our job to assure that what we do in the next 40 days will be part of a healthy, progressive Wyoming of tomorrow.

APPENDIX

Public Housing Act of 1937

Wyoming is one of the few states which has not adopted enabling legislation to allow the construction of low-cost public housing under the provisions of the federal Public Housing Act of 1937. I recommend enabling legislation that would permit Wyoming cities and towns to apply for federal funding under this act.

Senior Citizens

I recommend enabling legislation that would permit Wyoming's senior citizens to participate in federal programs for the aging.

Voting in Presidential Elections

I recommend consideration of a Constitutional amendment that would permit otherwise qualified citizens of Wyoming who have not resided in the state for one year to vote in Presidential elections.

Governor-Elect

Two years ago I recommended an appropriation for the Governor-Elect sufficient to conduct affairs of state in the interim between election and inauguration. I recommend that a modest appropriation be made for this purpose.

Forty-Hour Week for all State Employees

Presently some state employees work a forty-hour week and others work a 37½-hour week by statute. I recommend an amendment that will provide for a uniform forty-hour week for all state employees.

Commission on the Status of Women

Wyoming is one of the few states in the nation that do not have a Commission on the Status of Women. In keeping with Wyoming's tradition as the Equality State, I recommend the establishment of this commission by legislative action.

White House Conference on Children and Youth

In 1969 a Youth Conference will be held in Wyoming to prepare for the 1970 White House Conference on Children and Youth. I recommend your approval of the modest appropriation required by the Wyoming Youth Council to carry out the intent and purpose of these conferences.

Freedom of the Press

A "freedom of information" bill will be introduced in this legislative session. Precautions have been taken to insure the right of privacy by specifically excluding from this legislation adoption proceedings, confidential public welfare records, private medical records and similar personal and private records.

I recommend legislation to make public records, with the exception of those mentioned above, open for citizen inspection, and I recommend legislation to require that meetings of state and local governing bodies, boards, bureaus and commissions be public meetings.

Beginning at line 5—Strike page 1 strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

Section 1. No policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury or death suffered by any natural person arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state with respect to any motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto, in limits for bodily injury or death as set forth in Section 31-278(j), Wyoming Statutes 1957, Compiled 1967, as amended from time to time, under provisions approved by the Insurance Commissioner, for the protection of persons insured thereunder or legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death resulting therefrom; provided, however, that the named insured shall have the right to reject such coverages; and provided further that unless the named insured requests such coverage in writing, such coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy where the named insured had rejected the coverage in connection with the policy previously issued to him by the same insurer.

Section 2. For the purpose of this coverage, the term "Uninsured Motor Vehicle" shall, subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, be deemed to include an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency.

Section 3. The insolvency protection afforded by Section 2 of this act shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during the policy period in which the uninsured motor vehicle coverage is in effect. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any insurer from affording insolvency protection under terms and conditions more favorable to its insureds than is provided hereunder.

Section 4. In the event of payment to an insured under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payments shall, to the extent thereof, be entitled to the proceeds of any settlement or judgment resulting from the exercise of any rights of recovery of such insured against any person or organization legally responsible for the bodily injury or death for which such payment is made, including the proceeds recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer. Whenever an insurer shall make payment under the coverage required by this section and which payment is occasioned by an insolvency, such insurer's right of recovery or reimbursement shall not include any rights against the insured of said insolvent insurer, but such paying insurer shall have the right to proceed directly against the insolvent insurer or its receiver, and in pursuance of such right such paying insurer shall possess any rights which the insured of the insolvent company might otherwise have had, if the insured of the insolvent insurer had personally made payment.

Section 2. There is hereby created the Wyoming State Board of Nursing Administrators which shall consist of five (5) members. The State Director of Public Health, or his designee, who is a member of a health profession concerned with the care of the chronically ill or aged patient, shall serve as a member of such Board. The remaining four (4) members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governor. One appointee shall have the following qualifications:

(a) be of reputable and responsible character.

Section 3. The board shall have the authority to issue licenses to qualified persons as Nursing Home Administrators. No license shall be issued to a person as a Nursing Home Administrator unless he shall have submitted evidence satisfactory to the board of his ability to supervise a nursing home. Provided, that persons meeting the qualifications, who have heretofore been acknowledged by the State Department of Public Health as administrators of nursing homes pursuant to Sections 35-85 to 35-97, Wyoming Statutes 1957, and who hold such acknowledgement on the effective date of this act, but who cannot meet any additional qualifications established by the board, may, subject to such conditions and requirements as may be prescribed by the board, be granted a waiver by the board of such qualifications for a period of two (2) years after the effective date of this act.

Section 4. Each person licensed as a Nursing Home Administrator shall be required to pay an annual license fee in an amount to be fixed by the board, which fee shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50). Each such license shall expire on the 31st day of December following issuance, and shall be renewable for a calendar year, upon payment of the annual license fee.

Section 5. All fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid to the State Treasurer, who shall keep the same in a special fund to be known as the Wyoming State Board of Nursing Home Administrators' Fund, which fund may be used and expended by the board to pay the compensation and travel expenses of members and employees of the board, and other expenses necessary for the board to administer and carry out the provisions of this act.

The holder of a license under the provisions of this act shall be deemed qualified to serve as the administrator of a nursing home.*

Section 8. The board shall:

(a) Develop, impose and enforce standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a Nursing Home Administrator, which standards shall be designed to insure that Nursing Home Administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience, in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as Nursing Home Administrators.

(b) Develop and apply appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations, for determining whether an individual meets such standards.

(c) Issue licenses to individuals determined, after application of such techniques, to meet such standards, and revoke or suspend licenses previously issued by the board in any case where the individual holding such license is determined substantially to have failed to conform to the requirements of such standards, subject to the provisions of the Wyoming Administrative Act.

(d) Conduct a continuing study and investigation of nursing homes and administrators of nursing homes within the state with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of such administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who have been licensed as such.

(e) Establish and carry out procedures designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements of such standards; and

(f) Receive, investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the board to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of such standards.

Section 9. The board shall have the authority to make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary for the proper performance of its duties, and to take such other action as may be necessary to enable the state to meet the requirements set forth in Section 1908 of the Social Security Act, the federal rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and other pertinent federal authority.

Section 10. It shall be unlawful and a misdemeanor for any person to act or serve in the capacity of a nursing home administrator unless he is the holder of a license as a nursing home administrator, issued in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Section 11. This act shall be effective on and after June 30, 1970."
