AN ACT to amend and re-enact Section 9 of Chapter 63 of the Session Laws of 1913.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING:

SECTION 1. That Section 9 of Chapter 63 of the Session Laws of 1913 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 9. The discipline to be observed in said institute shall be reformatory, and the State Board of Charities and Reform shall have power to use such means of reformation consistent with the improvement of the inmates, as they may deem expedient. Inmates of such institute may be employed in agriculture, horticulture, or mechanical labor, as a means of their support and reformation, and the board is hereby authorized in its expenditures to provide and install such machinery and mechanical appliances as may be required for these purposes. All articles manufactured or produced, or all agricultural products grown by or through the labor of inmates of such institute not required for use by said institute, may be furnished to the state or for or to any public institution owned, managed or controlled by the state, or for use on any roads or highways under the direction of the State Highway Commission, or the county authorities of any county in the state, at and for such price or prices as shall be fixed and determined, as herein provided, upon requisition of the proper officials, and the State Board of Charities and Reform is hereby authorized to sell in the open market or in such other manner as shall be deemed advisable, any or all such products grown or produced by inmates within or without said industrial institute that are not sold for public use as above provided. All moneys received by said Board of Charities and Reform from the sale of any or all products manfactured, produced or grown by and through the labor of inmates of said industrial institute shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the fund provided for the support and maintenance of the Wyoming Industrial Institute at or near the town of Worland."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
