AN ACT to amend and re-enact Section 23-150, Wyoming Revised Statutes, 1931, as amended in Chapter 34, Session Laws of Wyoming, 1933, providing for a State Inspector of Coal Mines and TWO DEPUTIES, prescribing their compensation and fixing their authority and duties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING:

Section 1. Section 23-150, Wyoming Revised Statutes, 1931, as amended in Chapter 34, Session Laws of Wyoming, 1933, is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 23-150. The governor shall nominate and by and with the consent of the senate appoint a state inspector of coal mines and <sup>XXX</sup>~~TWO~~ DEPUTY INSPECTORS OF COAL MINES, who shall hold their respective offices for terms of four (4) years and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. * * * * *. They shall each have a thorough knowledge of practical mining and mining engineering, and each shall hold a certificate from the coal mining examining board of Wyoming, certifying to his competency and qualifications to discharge the duties of the office for which he is appointed. Neither the state inspector nor either of his TWO DEPUTIES shall be an employee, owner or part owner in any coal mine or coal mining company in the state. Said inspectors shall not be less than thirty (30) years of age, citizens of the United States, and qualified electors of this state, of good repute and temperate habits. The state inspector of coal mines shall receive an annual salary of thirty-six hundred dollars ($3600.00); and EACH DEPUTY inspector of coal mines shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars ($3000.00) and all of them shall receive actual traveling expenses when in the discharge of their duties. The state inspector of coal mine shall keep his office in the city of <sup>Shoshone, Wyoming and the</sup> Pocatello, Idaho, and the DEPUTY INSPECTORS shall be located at such place <sup>at</sup> or places as may be designated by the state inspector. The state inspector of coal mines is hereby authorized to procure such instruments, chemical tests and stationery, and to incur such expense of communication from time to time as may be necessary to the discharge of his duties and those of his DEPUTIES; provided that such expense shall not exceed the contingent fund provided. All expenses of the state mine inspector or his DEPUTIES, or his or THEIR offices, shall be paid out of the state treasury upon accounts duly certified by the state inspector, audited by the state auditor. All instruments, plans, books, memoranda, notes and other property pertaining to the offices hereby created, shall be the property of the state and shall be delivered by each inspector to his successor in office, and each inspector shall be allowed all expenses necessarily incurred in enforcing the provisions of law relating to coal mines in the courts of this state when such expenses are certified to be correct by the court before which the proceedings were heard.

Section 2. This act shall take effect and be in full force from and after April 1, 1935.
