COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 22, 1993

The Honorable Jerry B. Dixon
President of the Senate
Wyoming State Legislature
State Capitol
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Dear Senator Dixon:

As provided in W.S. 28-12-101, I am submitting to the members of the Senate my list of current and interim appointees. This list includes agency directors as well as members of state boards and commissions.

I will appreciate the favorable consideration of the members of the Senate regarding these appointment and I look forward to the report of the Senate vote within the next five days.

With best regards, I am

Very truly yours,
Mike Sullivan, Governor

February 25, 1993

The Honorable Jerry Dixon
President of the Senate
Wyoming State Legislature
Capitol Building
Cheyenne, WY 82002

Dear Senator Dixon:

With respect to the appointment process which seems never ending, I submit additions and corrections as follows:

a) To his significant credit, Charles Graves called me last night to express concern that I had overshot the political balance on the Industrial Siting Council. This was done inadvertently but requires I withdraw Chuck Graves' nomination. I submit instead the nomination of Delia Lamb (R) of Dubois. I would also like to express my respect and thanks to Mr. Graves for calling this slip-up to our attention.

b) As I advised in earlier correspondence, I was waiting to make a phone call on the Science, Technology and Energy Authority. That has been accomplished and I would like to submit the name of Sam Andrews (R), retired as an associate director of Marathon's Petroleum Technology Center to succeed Joe Dolan. His term would begin March 2, 1993 and would expire March 1, 1997. Sam is now a resident of Casper.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

With best regards, I am

Very truly yours,
Mike Sullivan

13-6-301. Procedure generally.

(a) Any association organized under the laws of this state may reorganize the association and provide for the carrying on of its business under the laws of this state by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the shares of the members of the association who vote at the meeting. No meeting shall be called unless the plan has first been approved by the state banking commissioner, THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION AND THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION. Notice of the meeting shall contain a statement of the time, place and purpose of the meeting and an outline of the reorganization plan. Notice shall be given by mailing a copy to each shareholder at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting, addressed to the shareholder at his address shown by the books of the association. All obligations to any prior association shall inure to the benefit of the reorganized association and be enforceable by it and in its name, and demands, claims and rights of action against any prior association may be enforced against the reorganized association as fully and completely as they might have been enforced before reorganization.

(b) Associations that are in the course of liquidation may reorganize. No reorganization is effective until approved by the state banking commissioner, THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION AND THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION and until the members holding three-fourths (3/4) of the outstanding shares have approved the plan in writing.

13-6-302. Conversion to federal association; procedure.

(a) Any guaranty STATE savings and loan association, or any other home financing association, eligible to become a federal savings and loan association may convert itself into a federal savings and loan association by the following procedure:

(ii) A copy of the minutes of the meeting verified by the affidavit of the president and the secretary of the meeting shall be filed within ten (10) days in the state banking commissioner's office, THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION AND THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION;

(iii) After the adjournment of the meeting of shareholders, the association shall take the necessary action to make it a federal savings and loan association. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the federal charter a copy of the charter issued to the association by the federal--home--loan--bank--board

(ii) A copy of the minutes of the meeting of the shareholders and members, verified by the affidavit of the president or vice president and the secretary of the meeting, shall be filed within ten (10) days after the meeting with the federal-home-loan-bank-board FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION OR OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION and in the state banking commissioner's office. The verified copy of the minutes of the meeting, when filed, is presumptive evidence of the holding and the action of the meeting;

(iii) The association shall then organize itself as a guaranty STATE savings and loan association under the laws of this state, including the filing of appropriate articles of incorporation, adoption of bylaws and election of officers and full compliance with the provisions of W.S. 13-6-209 through 13-6-221. Upon completion of its organization, the association ceases to be a federal savings and loan association and becomes a domestic-guaranty STATE savings and loan association subject to the supervision of the state banking commissioner, THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION AND THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION.

13-6-305. Conversion to state association; certificate. Before a conversion is effective pursuant to W.S. 13-6-304, the association shall file in the state banking commissioner's office a certificate from the federal savings-and-loan DEPOSIT insurance corporation that the conversion is acceptable to the federal savings-and-loan DEPOSIT insurance corporation OR THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION.

13-6-306. Conversion to state association; effect. When a conversion is effective, all the property of the federal savings and loan association continues to be vested in the association as a domestic-guaranty STATE savings and loan association. 13-6-405. Banking commissioner to be appointed receiver; assistants; bonding requirements. The state banking commissioner shall be appointed the receiver for any savings and loan association. The state banking commissioner may require each of the persons appointed to execute to him a bond as he may deem necessary. The state banking commissioner may designate the federal savings-and-loan DEPOSIT insurance corporation OR THE OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION to act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any savings and loan association whose assets are insured by the corporation and which has been closed for the purpose of liquidation.

13-7-102. Associations organized according to office of thrift supervision requirements.

(a) It is the purpose of this section to authorize the organization and operation of capital-stock-type-guaranty-capital STATE savings and loan associations according to the laws of the state of Wyoming which have the same powers and are subject to the restrictions provided for by the laws of the United States and the rules, regulations and requirements of the federal-home-loan-bank OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION and insurance of the shares and deposits of the associations by the federal savings-and-loan DEPOSIT insurance corporation.

13-7-103. Reports; examinations; membership.

(a) Any guaranty STATE savings and loan association may furnish to the federal-home-loan-bank-board-and-to-the-federal-home-loan-bank OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION reports of examinations of the association made by the state banking commissioner and may consent to an examination to be made by the federal-home-loan-bank-board OFFICE OF THRIFT SUPERVISION or the federal home--loan--bank DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION.

(b) A guaranty STATE savings and loan association may do all things necessary to obtain and to continue membership in the federal home loan bank and to obtain advances from it.

13-7-201. "Member" defined. A member of a guaranty-capital STATE savings and loan association is any person owning a savings account or investment certificate or any person borrowing from or assuming a loan held by an association or obligated upon a loan held by an association through purchase. Savings and investment account holders have no vote in the operations of the association.

13-7-301. Savings and investment accounts. Guaranty-capital STATE savings and loan associations may accept savings and issue savings account books or investment certificates as evidence of savings and shall credit interest or pay interest in cash periodically at least annually, if earned. Savings and investment accounts are ownership accounts in the association and not creditor liabilities and shall bear interest at a rate prescribed by the directors of the association for the period. If a rate is not specified prior to any period then accounts shall receive the rate prevailing the previous period. Interest shall be payable only if available from current earnings or undivided profits.

13-7-402. Borrowing from federal home loan bank.

(a) Any guaranty STATE savings and loan association may borrow money from the federal home loan bank, when authorized by resolution of its board of directors, upon terms and rates of interest as may be agreed upon. It may assign and pledge its notes, bonds, mortgages or other property and repledge the shares of stock or savings certificates pledged to it as collateral security without securing the consent of the owner as security for the repayment of its indebtedness. Any lawful holder of any evidence of indebtedness due to an association may enforce, in his own name or in the name of the association, all appropriate remedies to enforce collection, whether or not the stock or savings certificate described in connection with the note is held by the pledgee or holder.

13-7-602. Duties generally; examinations.

(a) The state banking commissioner shall supervise and administer the laws with respect to all guaranty-capital STATE savings and loan associations doing business in this state. He shall make at least an annual examination into the affairs of all savings and loan associations. All examinations shall be full and complete and he may compel the production of all books, papers, moneys and records of the association under examination and may administer oaths to and examine the officers of the association or any person connected with it as to its business and affairs. Any willful false swearing is perjury.

(b) The state banking commissioner shall collect from the association examined a-fee-of-ten-dollars-{$10.00}-per-day-for-each-examiner-employed-on-the-work,-together-with-all-actual-and-necessary-expenses AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL COST OF THE EXAMINATION CONDUCTED. The fees and expenses collected shall be remitted to the state treasurer as collected and credited to the general fund. The state banking commissioner shall report the condition of each association to the governor with recommendations. If the association is found to be in an unsafe condition, its charter may be suspended until the matters complained of by the state banking commissioner have been remedied."

"17-15-139. Merger.

(a) Pursuant to a written plan of merger, a domestic limited liability company may merge with one (1) or more domestic or foreign limited liability companies, limited partnerships or corporations if:

(i) The merger is not prohibited by the articles of organization or operating agreement of any domestic limited liability company that is a party to the merger, and each domestic limited liability company party to the merger approves the plan of merger in accordance with W.S. 17-15-140 and complies with the terms of its articles of organization and operating agreement;

(ii) Each domestic limited partnership that is a party to the merger complies with any provisions of law applicable to merger of domestic limited partnership;

(iii) Each domestic corporation that is a party to the merger complies with any provisions of law applicable to merger of domestic corporations;

(iv) The merger is permitted by the laws under which each foreign limited liability company, foreign limited partnership and foreign corporation party to the merger is organized, formed or incorporated, and each such foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation complies with those laws in effecting the merger;

(v) No member of a domestic limited liability company that is a party to the merger will, as a result of the merger, become personally liable for the liabilities or obligations of any other person or entity unless that member approves the plan of merger and otherwise consents to becoming personally liable;

(vi) In the case of a merger of a limited liability company to which one (1) or more domestic or foreign corporations are parties, a domestic or foreign corporation or limited liability company party to the merger is the surviving entity of the merger.

(b) The plan of merger shall set forth:

(i) The name of each domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation into which each other domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation plans to merge;

(ii) The name of the state or country under whose law each domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation planning to merge is organized, formed or incorporated and the name of the state or country or organization, formation or incorporation of the surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation;

(iii) The terms and conditions of the merger; and

(c) The plan of merger may set forth:

(i) If a domestic limited liability company is to be the surviving entity, amendments to the articles of organization or the operating agreement of that limited liability company;

(ii) If the merger is not to be effective upon the issuance of the certificate of merger described in W.S. 17-15-141(c) by the secretary of state, the future effective date or time of the merger; and

(iii) Other provisions relating to the merger.

17-15-140. Approval of merger by domestic limited liability company.

(a) Each domestic limited liability company that is to be a party to a proposed merger shall approve the proposed merger, unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement of that limited liability company provide otherwise, by the unanimous vote of the members of the limited liability company. However, a provision of a limited liability company's operating agreement purporting to authorize the limited liability company to approve a merger by a less than unanimous vote of the members shall be effective to permit approval of a merger by a less than unanimous vote only if either:

(i) The operating agreement included that provision at the time each member who does not vote in favor of the merger became bound by the operating agreement; or

(ii) The provision was added to the operating agreement through an amendment to which each member who does not vote in favor of the merger specifically consented.

(b) Any plan of merger may provide for the manner, if any, in which the plan may be amended by a domestic limited liability company party to the merger at any time before the effective date of the certificate of merger issued by the secretary of state for the merger.

(d) Unless the domestic limited liability company's articles of organization or operating agreement or the plan of merger provides otherwise, after the merger has been authorized and at any time before the effective date of the certificate of merger issued by the secretary of state for the merger, the merger may be abandoned by majority vote of the members of the domestic limited liability company. If articles of merger already have been filed with the secretary of state, written notice of abandonment shall be filed with the secretary of state before the effective date of the certificate of merger.

17-15-141. Articles of merger.

(a) After a plan of merger is approved by each domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation party to the merger, the surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation shall file with the secretary of state articles of merger setting forth:

(ii) If the surviving entity of the merger is a foreign limited liability company not registered with the secretary of state under W.S. 17-16-1533, a foreign limited partnership not registered with the secretary of state under W.S. 17-14-1001 et seq., or a foreign corporation without a certificate of authority issued by the secretary of state under W.S. 17-16-1501 et seq., the address including street and number, if any, of its principal office under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was organized, formed or incorporated;

(iv) If a domestic corporation is a party to the merger, any additional information required by W.S. 17-16-1105.

(b) If a foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation is a party to the merger, the articles of merger shall contain a statement that the merger is permitted by the state or country under whose law that limited liability company is organized, that limited partnership is formed or that corporation is incorporated and that the foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation has complied with that law in effecting the merger.

(c) If the secretary of state finds that the articles of merger comply with the requirements of law and that all required fees have been paid, he shall issue a certificate of merger. The certificate of merger shall become effective when issued unless the plan of merger specifies a future effective date, in which case the certificate of merger shall be effective on the earlier of:

(i) That date; or

(ii) The date that is fifteen (15) days after the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of merger.

17-15-142. Effect of merger.

(i) The separate existence of every domestic limited liability company that is a party to the merger except the surviving domestic limited liability company, if any, ceases;

(ii) The title to all real estate and other property owned by each domestic limited liability company party to the merger is vested in the surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation without reversion of impairment;

(iii) The surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation obtains all liabilities of each domestic limited liability company party to the merger;

(iv) A proceeding pending by or against any domestic limited liability company party to the merger may be continued as if the merger had not occurred, or the surviving domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership or corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the domestic limited liability company whose existence ceased;

(v) If a domestic limited liability company is the surviving entity of the merger, the articles of organization and operating agreement of that limited liability company are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger; and

(vi) The former holders of membership interests of every domestic limited liability company party to the merger are entitled only to the rights provided in the plan of merger."

"17-15-143. Continuance.

(a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, any limited liability company organized for any purpose except insurance or acting as a financial institution as described by W.S. 13-1-101(a) (iv) under the laws of any foreign jurisdiction may, if the foreign jurisdiction confirms in writing that the limited liability company's domicile has terminated in the foreign jurisdiction, apply to the secretary of state for registration under this act. The secretary of state may issue a certificate of registration upon receipt of an application supported by articles of continuance as provided by this act together with the statements, information and documents set out in subsection (c) of this section. The certificate of registration may then be issued continuing the foreign limited liability company in Wyoming as if it had been organized in this state. The certificate of registration may be subject to any limitations and conditions as may appear proper to the secretary of state.

(b) The secretary of state shall cause notice of issuance of a certificate of registration to be given forthwith to the proper officer of the foreign jurisdiction in which the limited liability company was previously organized.

(c) The articles of continuance filed by a foreign limited liability company with the secretary of state shall contain:

(i) A certified copy of its original articles or organization and all amendments thereto or its equivalent basic charter;

(ii) The names of the limited liability company and the foreign jurisdiction in which it has previously been lawfully organized.

(iii) The date of organization and the period of duration;

(iv) The address of its principal mailing address;

(v) The name and address of the proposed registered agent in this state;

(vi) The business purposes which it proposes to pursue in this state;

(vii) The names and respective business addresses of its members or, if the limited liability company has a manager or managers, the names and respective business addresses of the manager or managers;

(ix) Any additional information concerning capital contributions or financial status as the secretary of state deems necessary to establish fees;

(x) A statement that the limited liability company will abide by the constitution and laws of this state;

(xi) Any additional information necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine whether the limited liability company is entitled to a certificate of registration evidencing its authority to transact business in the state and to determine and assess any fees and taxes under the laws of this state;

(xii) Any additional information permitted in articles of organization under W.S. 17-15-107(x).

(d) The application shall be executed by the manager or managers if any or by any member who is authorized to execute the application on behalf of the corporation and shall be verified by the officer signing the application.

(e) The provisions of the articles of continuance may, without expressly so stating, vary from the provisions of the limited liability company's articles of organization or equivalent basic charter or other authorization, if the variation is one which a company organized under the Wyoming limited liability company act could effect by way of amendment to its articles of organization. Upon issuance of a certificate of continuance by the secretary of state, the articles of continuance shall be deemed to be the articles of organization of the continued limited liability company. The limited liability company may elect to incorporate by reference in the articles of continuance its basic charter or other authorization which has been adopted by it in the foreign jurisdiction, in order to permit the same to continue to act as the articles of organization, provided, however, that the basic charter or other authorization shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to make the same conform to the laws of Wyoming and to the provisions of the articles of continuance.

(f) Except for the purpose of W.S. 16-6-101 through 16-6-118, the existence of any limited liability company heretofore or hereafter issued a certificate of continuation under this act shall be deemed to have commenced on the date the limited liability company commenced its existence in the jurisdiction in which it was first formed, organized or otherwise came into being. The laws of Wyoming shall apply to a limited liability company continuing under this act to the same extent as if it had been organized under the laws of Wyoming from an after the issuance of a certificate of continuation under this act by the secretary of state. When a foreign limited liability company is continued under this act, the continuance shall not affect the ownership of its property, not its liability for any existing obligations, causes of action, claims, pending or threatened prosecution or civil or administration actions, convictions, rulings, orders or judgments.

(g) Continuance under this act does not deprive a member of any right or privilege that he claims under, or relieve any member of any liability in respect of, his membership." BOWRON

Remarks of Governor Mike Sullivan

Conclusion of the General Session of the 52nd Wyoming Legislature

Wyoming Senate
Wyoming State Capitol, Cheyenne

March 5, 1993

Good evening. Thanks for sticking around.

Mr. President, members of the Senate, I'll try to make this relatively brief. I know it's been a long session and certainly a long day. Yesterday afternoon I sent up a veto message that I thought you would all enjoy and would give you some sort of red meat to flex your political muscle. And little did I know that that was only the beginning of a long 24 hours.

In my message to you earlier in the session I suggested we look at options for broadening and diversifying our tax base. And we did that, amidst much debate. But I think it would be fair to say that there has been a tidal movement in that respect. I acknowledge, as I think you know as well, that we've come a long way from where we started, but I would suggest that we've only begun to address the challenges that we face.

We will return facing a large deficit -- $120 million at least if you take it before any statutory changes, without inflationary increases. And if you add the 5 percent provision that you put in the budget, that's another $40 million.

You treated education fairly and I think we need to do that because that's our future.

You resisted the temptation to take GAAP funds and use them on a one-time basis, and I believe that was important, and I commend you for that.

In the noise of the budget and the revenue debate, which captured so much of our attention, much other good legislation was passed. Stalking, workers' compensation, child support and enforcement measures, welfare reform, casket rental and others.

Some not-so-good was passed, but I want to give you my congratulations on the good legislation. Your work in these areas will serve the state well.

At the same time, some not-so-good legislation was killed, and sometimes that's as important as what is passed.

And some good legislation died. I regret that none of the good government bills were passed, and I hope that as we continue our political journey and the new legislators particularly secure more tenure that you will come to join me in the abiding belief that accountable and open government is a must if we hope to sustain long term the integrity and the unique brand of legislative politics that we enjoy in Wyoming.

But you leave here tonight with many challenges yet unmet:

-- A school shortfall which will continue and which hasn't been totally addressed.

-- A somewhat more diversified tax base but not one which will be sufficient to cover our requirements and one which we will again have to address in the next session of this Legislature.

-- A challenge to continue to assess and to evaluate our priorities, our programs, our values as a people and a state and a need to critically address all of our spending. And as I promised the leadership before this session started, I say to you I intend to work with you on that challenge.

-- We have a cadre of dedicated, committed but still underpaid state employees and education employees who we must call upon to do more with less, to use their creativity and their innovation in helping us provide to our citizens quality services and consideration in delivery of those services. We cannot continue to leave them behind and continue to expect to enjoy the quality in state services and the excellence in higher education that we have come to expect in Wyoming.

-- We left unaddressed the capital needs of our infrastructure, our schools, our state buildings and our parks and cultural sites, and we still face a health care and workers' compensation crisis that we must address.

But I commend you on the progress which has been made in the debate on workers' compensation and the understanding that I think we jointly share in that challenge and the legislation that was passed to help address those challenges.

There was in this session less partisanship, less acrimony than in past, and I think less public posturing. I attribute much of that to the leadership, and I express my appreciation for that because I think it served us all well. I have as well appreciated working with all of you -- working with the leadership of both parties and with the historical freshman class of the 52nd Legislature.

This session closes with Wyoming still too dependent on mineral revenues, too influenced by special interests and with an inadequate appreciation, I fear, for those who provide the services to our citizens and education to our children.

But we have opened a window in this session that we shouldn't overlook. We have made progress that many of us thought we would not have made. And I believe we have together a greater sensitivity as we look through that window for not only today's needs but tomorrow's challenges, and I am convinced we now share a common understanding that there is a problem, which we face jointly, that blind adherence to ideologies at either extreme will not solve and will not correct.

In my opening address, I asked for equal measures of confidence, honesty and courage. Whether I agree with all of your actions -- and you clearly know that I don't agree with all of your actions -- or whether they move us far enough along the path that I believe we must travel in Wyoming and for the citizens of Wyoming is not as material as the fact that in addressing the issues, I do believe that each of you in your own way and in your own measure did exercise those attributes that I called for, and for that this state and its citizens should applaud you.

I look forward to working with you in facing the challenges yet unknown and the challenges yet unmet, and there are many.

Thank you for your service. Travel safely.

President Dixon requested Senators Grieve and Applegate to escort His Excellency, the Governor, back to his office.

ADJOURNMENT

Majority Floor Leader, Senator Eddins moved:

1. That the 1993 Senate General Session of the Legislature adjourn until a date and time which is determined jointly by the President of the Senate and by the Speaker of the House for the purpose of calling the House and Senate back into session.
2. That if no such time is so established before February 18, 1994 the Senate General Session of the Legislature adjourn effective at 12:00 o'clock noon on that date and the Legislative Budget Session convene on the 21st day of February, 1994 at the hour of ten o'clock a.m.
3. That the Senate specifically concurs in any identical motion adopted by the House.
4. That if the House of Representatives fails to concur in the action of the Senate under paragraphs 1 through 3 of this motion by adopting an identical motion applicable to the House, the 1993 Senate General Session of the 52nd Legislature adjourn.

President Dixon stated: "You have heard the motion. All those in favor say Aye -- opposed, Nay. By your vote, the motion as passed the Senate.

President Dixon continued: "The 1993 Session of the Senate of the Fifty-Second Legislature is adjourned subject to the conditions stated in the motion of Senator Eddins and that the Legislative Budget Session shall convene on the 21st day of February, 1994, at the hour of ten o'clock a.m.
