Report of the Joint committee on Joint Rules for the Council and House of Representatives, Seventh Legislative Assembly:

Joint Rules for the Council and House of Representatives:

1. In every case of an amendment of a bill, joint resolution or memorial agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other, if either House shall repuest a conference and appoint a committee to confer, the other House shall appoint a like committee, and such committees shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses, and shall report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses for action.

2. When a message shall be sent from either House it shall be announced at the door by the doorkeeper and shall be delivered to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.

3. Messages shall be sent by such persons as a sense of propriety in each House may determine to be proper.

4. Notice of the action of either House, to the other, shall be on paper, and under the signature of the chief clerk of the House from which such notice is to be conveyed.

5. A standing committee, to be known as the joint committee on Enrolling and Printing, composed of five members, two of whom shall be from the Council and three from the House of Representatives, shall be appointed, the presiding officer of each House selecting the members to which that House is entitled.

6. Every bill, joint resolution or memorial which shall have passed both Houses, shall then be duly enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the House in which it originated. It shall then be referred to the joint committee on enrolling and printing, who shall carefully examine it, compare it with the engrossed bill, and any amendment or amendments that may have been passed after it was engrossed, and shall correct any errors that may appear in it. They shall then report the result of such examination to the House in which the bill, joint resolution or memorial originated.

7. After an examination and report, each bill shall be signed, first by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or by the Speaker elected pro tem., then by the President of the Council, or by the President elected pro tem.

8. When a bill, joint resolution or memorial shall have been thus signed, the clerk shall endorse on the back thereof a certificate specifying in which House the same originated. It shall then be presented by the committee to the Governor of the Territory for his approval. After having performed this duty the committee shall report to the House in which the paper originated the day and hour of presentation to the Governor, which facts shall be entered upon the journal of said House. Said committee is further empowered to report at any time to either House on any matter committed to it.

9. When a bill, joint resolution or memorial which shall have passed in one House shall be rejected by the other, notice thereof shall be given to the House in which the same shall have been passed.

10. When a bill, joint resolution or memorial which has been passed in one House shall be rejected by the other, it shall not be brought in again during the same session without a notice of five days, and leave of a majority of that House in which it shall be renewed; but the same bill, joint resolution or memorial shall not be presented more than twice in either House.

11. Each House shall transmit to the other House papers on which any bills, joint resolutions or memorials shall be founded.

12. No bill, joint resolution or memorial that shall have passed the House of Representatives and Council, shall be presented to the Governor for his approval on the last two days of the session.

13. Any document or documents proposed to be printed shall be referred to the joint committee on enrolling and printing, who shall report thereon to the House in which such document or documents originated.

14. When any bill, joint resolution or memorial shall be introduced in one House, notice thereof shall be immediately transmitted to the other House.

15. No bills, except appropriation bills, shall be introduced in either House after the fiftieth day of the session, except by consent of a quorum in the House in which the bill originated.

16. Neither House shall adjourn for more than three consecutive days during the session, without the consent of the other House thereto.

Mr. Speaker:

It is with the greatest pleasure that I rise to fulfill a privilege accorded to me on the part of my honorable colleagues of this House. In behalf of this body I present to you this gavel in token of our friendship, and in appreciation of your work in your position as our presiding officer. It is probably something more ornamental than useful, unless it should serve to remind you in after years of your friends and colleagues, and of our unusually pleasant relations as legislators. I say if it does this it will satisfy us as to its usefulness.

The Speaker with much feeling responded, accepting the offered present, as he would treasure it in coming years as a memento of the pleasant relations formed as a legislator.

In a second speech of acceptance, the Speaker called attention to Mr. Downs' artistic taste as displayed upon the northern walls of the hall.

On motion of Mr. Adams, Mr. Alexander returned a vote of thanks, on behalf of the House, to Mr. Buechner, for the beautiful engraving on the gavel presented.
