

And to amend certain sections of the Revised Statutes of Wyoming relating to the appointment and duties of a Territorial Auditor concerning Insurance Corporations, and for other purposes.

Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wyoming:

Section 1. That section sixteen hundred and eighty six of the Revised Statutes of Wyoming be and the same is hereby amended and re-enacted as

as to read as follows:

"The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the consent of the Senate appoint, during each regular session of the Legislature, a Territorial Treasurer, and a Territorial Auditor, the latter of whom shall be an officer of insurance business, who shall hold his respective offices two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The official terms of those officers shall begin, both in the beginning and termination. The term of office shall begin at noon on the thirty first day of March following their appointment, and end at noon on the thirty first day of March two years thereafter. The said Treasurer and Auditor and ex-officio Insurance Commissioner shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall take the oath of office provided by law, which shall be understood as being respective commissions. They shall keep their offices at the seat of government of the Territory, and if either officer is not a resident of that place he shall appoint a deputy, who resides there, to represent him. Vacancies occurring in either of the offices of Treasurer or Auditor, when the Legislature is not in session, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, the person so named as appointed to hold their offices respectively for the un-expired term. The Territorial Treasurer and Auditor shall be removable at any time by the Governor, for cause, but the fact of such removal and the cause therefor shall be reported by the Governor to the next Legislative Assembly of the Territory, at the opening of the session."

as to read as follows:

Sec 2. Section sixteen hundred and ninety three is hereby amended and re-enacted as to read as follows:

"The Auditor shall be the general accountant of the Territory, and the
